Fire will never say that it has had enough
Use your infinite energy to create the life you want

The Sun kissed our cheeks and shoulders as we gathered in Kahuna Leilani's backyard to celebrate May/Lei Day. As we began to call in the directions the birds started to chirp, and the wind blew through our hair. It sent a chill of happiness throughout our bodies as some of us were taken back to O'ahu, where we spent time in Sacred Sisterhood laughing and learning. Once the circle was cast, we all took turns giving and saying birthday blessings to Kahuna Leilani. Some sprinkling the sweet-smelling water and some letting it flow like a waterfall, but all were appreciated and loved. Then we gathered together to make our Haku leis. As we breathed in the bouquets luscious aromas and wove colorful flowers in the shape of a circle, the energy of Aloha surrounded us. There was talk among some of our sisters about the Herstory of the islands and Her people. During our next Pilgrimage to Hawai'i, we will definitely have many things to pray and be blessed with.

Aloha Daughters of the Goddess,

This Summer has been a time of nostalgia and reconnection. I had the blessing of seeing many women and family members that I haven't seen in years. The hands of time move forward and my cup runneth over with reminders of precious people and relations. June began with an unplanned visit from Chief Luisah Teish. We hosted her at the Temple spending hours having deep conversations and talking story. She still seeks housing back in Cali and feels her time down South has been completed.

July brought Carolyn Brandy's Drum Camp which I hadn't been to in years and saw more wonderful and powerful leaders. Had a spirit filled time dancing by the night fire with amazing drummers and the starlit sky above us. A trip to Southern Cali wove us together for the Circle of Aradia's 30th Anniversary with Ruth, Falcon, Max, Ava, Vajra Ma, Cerridwen and many other wonderful and wise women I've known for decades. Late August/early September brought ancestral land connections on Maui and O'ahu. Finding the graves of my Great, Great Grandmother Esther and Grandfather William Punohu Hawaiian Loyalist and Activists for Queen Lili'uokalani during the time of the illegal takeover of the Hawaiian Nation by the United States. Visited Auntie Jackie with my daughter Jade as we sat and listened to the stories of Aunties, Uncles and cousins and lots of laughter too!

Clearly the Ancestors are already beginning to call as Summer now turns to Fall, the Harvest is plentiful, and the winds of change continue to blow. I look forward to praying with you at Her altar and am blessed by each and every one of you. If you are reading this, our lives have been woven together in some magical way. I look at each name on our mailing list thinking fondly of you and send out my Aloha.

I look forward to taking another group of women on the Sacred Pilgrimage to Hawai'i. Sharing the Hawaiian culture and experiencing the islands in a way that is honestly not available when you visit as a tourist. Auntie Pahia has mentioned the Hawaiian knowledge as having levels of deep, deeper, deepest. I invite you to delve a bit deeper than you have and join me on this journey.

I am envisioning seeing you this Winter as we journey through the darkness and into the Birth of the Sun together! I'm always intrigued to see what Spring Bouquets will appear from the richness of Winters' slumber and reflection.

Aloha Blessings,

Kahuna Leilani
